

Demetria Horton – Program Coordinator

demetria.horton@aumfoundationusa.org

Demetria holds a BBA from the University of North Alabama in Entrepreneurship and an MBA from Alabama A&M University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude. As an operations and strategy professional with over eight years of experience in marketing, business relations and strategy, she enjoys contributing to organizational growth and business development. Demetria enjoys spending time with family and loves to travel. Her excursions, both academically and recreationally, include studying abroad at the International Business Academy in Kolding, Denmark and Nanjing Forestry University in Nanjing, China (International Business and Culture), visiting Denmark, Germany, China, Haiti, Mexico, and the Dominican Republic. She has led, both domestic and international, leadership groups for Alternative Breaks, a college program promoting the facilitation of developing global citizenry, in Port Au Prince, Haiti; Ferguson, Missouri; Peoria, Illinois; and New York City.